SUBJECT Edwin Wilson Report

STEVE BOSH: This sounds like a scene from a spy novel. Edwin Wilson, an ex-CIA agent accused of being a middleman for Libyan strongman Muammar Qaddafi, was arraigned today. Wilson faces charges ranging from exporting explosives to setting up a school for Libyan terrorists.

Wilson was lured from his haven in Libya to the Dominican Republic then sent home to the United States and arrested on Tuesday.

At his hearing today, Wilson's lawyer refused to enter a plea, questioning the legality of Wilson's arrest. The judge entered a plea of not guilty for Wilson.
